

Directions

on Microsoft

INDEPENDENT Analysis of Microsoft Technology & Strategy

2012 TeleBriefing Schedule >

This schedule summarizes upcoming TeleBriefings as of November 10, 2011 and is subject to change at any time. TeleBriefings are phone based conferences that consist of a 20-minute presentation by a DIRECTIONS expert followed by a question-and-answer period. Briefing topics complement DIRECTIONS research and analysis. For more information, contact us at 425.739.4669 or info@DirectionsOnMicrosoft.com

Date	Topic	Description
26-Jan-12	Enterprise Software Roadmap 2012	Rob Helm outlines the most important planned software releases and retirements for 2012 and beyond.
23-Feb-12	SQL Server and SQL Azure Roadmap	Wes Miller summarizes likely improvements for Microsoft's database and business intelligence products and services.
29-Mar-12	SQL Server Licensing Overview	Rob Horwitz provides a SQL Server Licensing Overview
26-Apr-12	Systems Management Roadmap	Don Retallack explains the current and future System Center product lineup in the wake of the Microsoft Management Summit.
31-May-12	Windows 8 Developer Roadmap	Rob Sanfilippo discusses Windows 8 application development technologies and their compatibility with existing technologies such as the .NET Framework and Silverlight
28-Jun-12	Windows Roadmap Update	Michael Cherry provides an update on rollout plans for Windows 8 and Windows Server 8 across processor architectures and channels.
26-Jul-12	Evaluating Licensing Programs	John Cullen provides tips on deciding which volume licensing program to use for specific types of purchases.
30-Aug-12	Lync and Skype Roadmap	Rob Helm outlines Microsoft's likely plans for its most important communications products and services.